headacheless feature also commends

What fun Japan is storing up for herself in "investigating" her heroes after the war is over!

Residents of Port Arthur can practice economy in one direction. They do not need to buy alarm clocks.

Among those who think a Derby isn't all they claim it to be is the lady whose beautiful train was stepped on.

There is a great deal of pretense in the culture of some people. They carry an imitation gold case in a chamois bag.

of letters degree more freely than usual this season. It makes a very pretty boutonniere. It's a queer thing that champion

They are passing around the doctor

Jeffries, after surviving all the perils of championship prize fights, should be disabled at baseball, "Does your lawn mower need snarp-large type. Of course it does. All lawn mowers always do. Mr. Carnegie declares that he has prospered because of his ability to employ men cleverer than himself.

ening?" asks an advertiser in his

Miss Carl's portrait of Tsi An makes the dowager empress look quite young and handsome. This shows how kindhearted a girl the young American artist is. The pounding of the hammer and the scrape of the trowel and the clink of the riveter are the chief sounds that now greet the ears of visitors to The Sultan of Turkey has received another protest from the powers in regard to the Armenian atrocities. Like the other 41,144 protests, it has been placed on file.

If the ministers of Cincinnati stick to their intention of telling the truth about the deceased in all cases, a good many of their fellow-citizens will be afraid to die.

Rear Admiral Sigsbee cabled from San Domingo to the navy department as follows: "Revolution now ended." He carelessly neglected, however, to mention which one.

One of the amiable professors Chicago university announces that hell is not a fact, merely a condition. But when the condition is sizzling what's the odds about the fact?

The newspaper correspondents in the field with the Japanese army have submitted a round-robin protest to the staff, and in all probability the staff knows precisely what to do with

Two New York amusement managers have just signed a contract with Edouard de Reszke for a tour of sixty concerts in this country next season. just as if they had never heard of Patti.

According to the pure food authorities, much of the raspberry jam of commerce is composed of syrup of apple cores, aniline dve and hayseed. It is almost as base a deceiver as maple syrup. The directors of the Yale library announce that they have a fragment of a lost tragedy by Æschylus or Sophocles in a package of papyrus fragments lately found in Egypt. More trouble for the students. An esteemed contemporary raises the question of how to distinguish between poison ivy and Virginia creeper. One sure way is to rub the face and hands thoroughly with the suspect and note results. Perhaps in the scientific assertion that a man's beard is the home and haunt of countless harmful microbes there is some comfort for the youth who is trying desperately to raise a small mustache and can't.

According to a London newspaper "nothing remains for Kuropatkin but to stake his all upon one last wild fling of the Iron dice." Previous to writing this the author must have taken one last wild fling at a dope bottle.

When the liberty bell was in Minneapolis the public schools were dismissed and the Rapid Transit company gave each of the 35,000 children a free ride to view the bell and return. That was better than any lesson in history that the children may have

We read with delight that Alfred Austin anonymously sent a one-act play to a London theater-manager a while ago which the manager thought ed. It's such a pleasure to learn that | face towards the East. Alfred can write something.

"Hereafter," says a contemporary, "the average man will examine the life rafts and life preservers before he trusts himself on an excursion steam er." Probably not. The careful man may do so, but the average man will continue to take things for granted.

Here are some of the most interesting statistics of the Princeton graduating class: The average age of graduates is 22 years and six months, the weight is 143 pounds and the hight 5 feet 10 inches. The preferable style of beauty is the brunette and the favorite name is Helen. Helen must have brown hair and blue eyes. In the entire class 185 smoke, and only fifty-three began smoking in college. The seniors boast of kissing 151 girls and retaining 614 girl correspondents. Evidently most of them have obeyed the injunction: "Never tell." A Pennsylvania Enoch Arden who returned a few days ago proceeded to punch the head of the gentleman who had married into his family in the meantime, while the lady in the case lent valuable assistance with the rolling pin. We can account for her part in the wind-up only on the theory that she wished to avoid the appearance of adding insult to injury.

Reindeer teams now carry the mails from Kotzebue to Point Barrow, in Alaska. It must seem like Christmas every day to the little Alaskans.

Author of "The Kidnapped Millionaires," "Colonel Monroe's Doctrine," Etc.

MENNEMBER DER SERVICE SERVICE

• COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY FREDERICK UPHAM ADAMS HHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH

A. J. DREXEL BIDDLE

CHAPTER XV.

A Brilliant Campaign.

James Blake vet longed for speculaachieve some sweeping coup, and taste. Hawkins joins in sabitations and we the inward joy of trumph-sweeter drunk your health. and John Hawkins and been equally untroubled as that of a child, successful. Blake saw a chance and took it. With nerve and skill be James Plake found himself the Wall half of his capital destined to mark an epoch in his cas bad invested every dollar of his own.

"Can you arrange your affairs so tom of the market and covered in time as to go to New York for me, starting to profit on the reaction. In a week on Saturday?" asked John Burt. "I can start to night if necessary," mistake, replied Blake,

Such modesty seems too good to be eager to buy them. I shall have diss tevered brow and whispered soft words posed of my interest in them before of praise into his ears.

he again read a telegram received a few hours before, and his handsome face flushed with pleasure as he read: "Accept my congratulations on your ive laurels. His one ambition was to superh handling of our campaign. Mr

By FREDERICK

UPHAM ADAMS

far than the undescrived fame which | "Our campaign?" said Blake, half had amassed half a million of dol- aloud. "That's the highest of romlars the temptation to risk it was too, plinents. John must have wen nortrong to be resisted. John Burt had funes, and I'm a millionaire of last ust terminated a compaign which had Wonder if I can sleep. Here goes," netted him nearly a million in profit. | The dropped into a slumber deep and forced a stock to a point where vies street here of the hour. He was actory seemed certain; but an unfore- claimed the young financial giant from seen event ruined his chances at the the Pfleific slope a market Lyanbou moment when the spell of ill luck who had driven his lauce through the seemed broken. The market turned, armor of famed knights and warriors. but by a series of moves, brilliant as | The drank deep of the glorious nectar if inspired by success instead of dis- of victory. The day had dawned when aster. Blake saved himself from a be could accept honors fairly won. complete rout, and emerged with oees While admitting that John Burt was the master-mind of the campaign, A few days later he held an inter | Dinke knew that he had played no view with John Burt—an interview small part in its consummation. He

of furious conflict he had not made a New York threw open her gates as "Saturday night will be better," said to a victorious general, proud to be Burt. "Two important railroad stocks bested in henor of his fame. She bewill decline heavily next week. They came the opulent and willing mistress are now bouyant, and the public is to his pleasures. She fanned his ou reach New York. Two million | He banqueted with money kings in ling. His friends tell this story on dollars will be placed there to your staid old clubs; he met as an equal him. He had been collecting all kinds credit. Proceed at once, on your the dashing young scions of wealth of tags and coupons bearing premiums arrival, to sell short one hundred thous around the boards in fashionable for some time when one day he nosand shares of each of these stocks; cafes; he drifted through drawing, titled an advertisement of a New Jer-You should be able to do this in three | rooms brilliant in light, and looked indays without seriously breaking the to the admiring faces of radiant market. You hold in your name be- women; he mingled with the jeweled chance for a series of prizes, the first tween five and six million dollars! throng in playhouse and opera; he prize being a horse and runabout. Mr.

listed on the New York exchange. Ex- | fame in the public prints-and he for- | anteed in every particular. press them to New York at once. I get John Burt. the details before you leave, and I handsome than ever. He goodnatur, swindle, have absolute faith in your ability to colly declined to discuss his triumphs conduct the campaign."

There was no shadow of envy or jeal- ensive reverses and modestly atousy in his thoughts as he looked into tributed his recent run of success to the face of the companion of his boy- lucthe glants of Wall street.

"I can do it! I will do it!" he exmagnificent. John. magnificent! It will win-win beyond a doubt." John was silent for a moment, and a far-off look came to his eyes. "I have two important personal commissions for you, Jim," he said.

While in New York ascertain for me if Arthur Morris is alive. Find out what he is doing, and learn what you can about him. The second task is a more delicate one. It concerns Miss Carden. I wish to know ---"I know exactly what you want." interrupted Jim Blake as John besita-"You want to know where she is, how she is, if she loves you, and ---

"You need not attempt the latter ask," said John rather shortly. "You are likely to undertake too much. For he present I do not care to acquaint Miss Carden, or any one in the East. with my whereabouts, or even with he fact of my existence. Re careful n this matter, Jim. Of course you vill go to Hingham and visit your kinsfolk. You can easily learn all f care to know from the Bishons, or peraps from Sam Rounds. If not, go Boston; but get the facts without tand, don't you. Jim?"

Jim heartily. "Fil be as cautious as a utmost by the incident. dime-novel slouth:

He arrived in New York on Friday | certainly have heard-evening. Early the following morning he appeared in Wall street and pre- luck!" Arthur Morris thrust forward young hopefuls, was expelled, and one banks and brokers who had been see ed it with simulated heartiness. ected by John Burt as agents in the pending operations.

small blocks of the two railway stocks. The market was strong, and all offer. Mr. Blake! Waner, a bottle of Perier ings were eagerly absorbed. In three | Gouet, 54. I want in drink your days he had sold one hundred thou-health, Mr. Blake," sand shares of each stock, and the market was stationary. He wired the said James Blake, looking him full in after calling out all the reserves fact to John Burt and received in the eyes. "I've heard of your father, amounts to 5,250,000 men, or more structions. The following day he he and the famous old firm, and learned than ten times that of Japan. The gan the cash sale of the stocks and se- only to-day that you've succeeded him | soldiers are drawn from the ignorant curities. When half of them were in business." old the market began to weaken.

cipher telegram which, when transated, read as follows:

broke sharply. Late in the afternoon aggressiveness. ame the news of the resignation of | Close observers predicted a great ca- recently in Frankfort, has left in his powerful directors on railroads A and reer for Arthur Morris. His father will £40,000 to the poor of Reichenthe organization of a competing was delighted with the transformation berg, his native town. In addition, and B in five thousand lots.

for enormous bond issues. When James Blake went to bed late | ris treasurer vaults. Saturday night it was after fifty hours | The hours glided by to the music of | fort house, and some of his landed ropose to convert them into cash. He spent an evening in a Fifth Ave. in California, but told with spirit, It was a proud moment for Blake, frankness and humor the tales of suc- or shrunk?"

hood, and heard him speak calmly of "You must transfer your activities | yesterday with one of them on? Well, millions and of launching them against | to New York," advised young Kings | sir, she smiled sweetly and asked: lions and a banking business. 'San coral necklace around your throat, claimed. "I see your plan, and its Francisco is too small and provincial John?" - New York Times, for you. Ah, here comes a fellow con must meet!" A thick-set young man had entered the room. He stood and listened with a bored expression to a friend who was enthusiastic over some matter, and persisted in repeatedly shaking

"That's Morris-Arthur Morris" explained Kingsley. "Son of old Ran-Morris retired from business two maintains offices in several cities, but regarding the deatth of Mr. Loomis, expiration of this time a further stay weeks ago and turned everything over | none of them is equipped with that | roplied: to Arthur. He was a wild one, but modern convenience so essential to ne's settled down. The Merris mil- the average business man. lions won't shrink in his hands. I want you to know him, Blake." shame he recalled that he had made general gratification. "But why did to inquiry concerning this man, whose | you put in these bells?" he demanded. death or existence meant so much to "My men aren't cows, when I want

For a moment his nerves tingled and he longed to walk across the room | phone were removed. and choke Merris for John's sake, but he reflected that this was folly. It was enough to know that Morris lived, John Burt was dead so far as Arthur alling on Miss Carden. You under- Morris was concerned—and Blake, as cide in Berlin, Germany, under pecu-John's reincarnation, threw himself liar circumstances. The teachers in "Certainly I do, old fellow." said on guard, determined to profit to the his school discovered that among the

"Glad to see you, old man!" ex-After repeated conferences every de | claimed Kingsley, rising to greet Mor- | indulging in drinking bouts and other tail of the Wall street campaign was ris. "I want you to know my friend. was capital and which he has accept | agreed upon, and James Blake set his | Mr. Blake Mr. James Blake, of San | tating the ways of the university stu-Francisco-Mr. Arthur Morris. You dents, had their own colors, which sented letters of introduction to the a soft hand and winced as Blake clasp- morning after mounting his colors he "Belighted to meet you, Mr. Blake!" Morris exclaimed. Been looking for probably hasten a long-delayed inquiry Jove, you're a corker, don't you know, of adolescence,

"Glad to meet you, Mr. Morris!"

Two years spent by Arthur Morris the governing ranks of society, On Thursday morning he received in an apprenticeship to the trade of Should Russia call out all her troops money grasping and holding had she will have 78,827 officers, 5,180,-"Sell remainder of securities at hard lines. The once dull eyes glow- cannon. Germany is the only nation market price, and then offer railroads ed with the newly-lighted fires of that exceeds Russia in its military 14 and 7. avarice. The sensuous lips dropped equipment. "J. B." at the corners with a cruel curve. The Beneath the weight of these offer- former air of indifference was rengs the market trembled and then placed by the alertness of defense and line, and the passage of a resolution and did not hesitate to give to his he has given to the town his valuable heir the keys which unlocked the Mor- collection of pictures (worth the of work without sleep. He had prac- clinking glasses and the rising clatter property. The Reichenberg library tically concluded one of the most de- of conversation. And as James Blake and reading room has been also encisive campaigns ever waged on the talked and listened and drank, his dowed, and altogether the town has street. Before turning out the lights aversion to Arthur Morris relaxed. inherited a sum of £200,000.

He loved John Burt and was eager to pouse his cause, but John had not Arthur Morris. Perhaps the affair of he years before was only a boyhood

He glanced at the white expanse of Morris' shirt front and wondered if the scar of John's bullet showed over his art. Morris lived, and the thought ime to Blake that the acore was even why should John complain? And iterated again and again. He also sary to enforce its provisions, Arthur Morris did not seem to be such assured them that if necessary to a had sort of a fellow after all.

the noisy club men

"Say we get out of this?" said Morwe'll go to my rooms."

serve us that 1809 brandy!" The Indian servant bowed and He had carried his stock to the botnumber of unopened letters. (To be continued.)

HE GOT THE PRIZE.

Now Mr. Lee Does Not Want Another Such.

Edward E. Lee of Baltimord manager of a well known wickerware house, is a fiend after coupon collectsey firm that upon receipt of lifteen of their tags they would forward one worth of stocks and bonds, which are I read his name and the story of his Lee began industriously to get all the tags he could find until he had the juisite number, which he forward- A few days later be was notified hat he had wen first prize. Immedistely following this letter came a tiny rocking horse. He sat down and wrote a survastic letter to the firm. "I beg a acknowledge receipt of the barse; he wrote, "but you failed to inclose he runabout." In an early mail he recived this letter: "Dear Sir: We have your letter acknowledging receipt of the horse. As for the runabout, go chase yourelf. Yours truly, - ."-Lippincott's.

SHIRTS MUST HAVE SHRUNK.

for Coral Necklace. "Jim" Sullivan tells of a friend, a infferer from rhoumatism, who, hearing during the early part of the winter that red flannel worn next to the body was a remedy for that complaint, purchased several undershirts made of that material. The clerk assured him that the goods were guar-

About two weeks afterward Mr. Sullivan's friend revisited the shop When I wire you, throw them on the | nue Club-the guest of a young bank- | where he had bought the red flannel market and sell more of the railroad | er and broker who had profited from | shirts and registered a big kick stocks. This is our introduction to the coup. Blake was faultlessly against the perpetuation against him the Eastern market. We'll discuss dressed and his fine face was more of what he termed "a fearful

> "What's the matter" asked the "Faded! Shrunk!" howled the man. me when I came down to breakfast ley, who had been willed several mil- "Why are you wearing my pink

> > Mr. Hill and His Bells. James J. Hill, pioneer railroad king of the Northwest, has Herculean body fell into the water near title prejudices. Among other things he Eddystone Lighthouse, dislikes bells. He owns the finest

When Mr. Hill's offices in St. Paul were recently renovated his private | head back of the right ear is the size far corner of the smoking-room. With him the office manager and expressed it has been in the water," them I can use my lungs."

The next day signal bells and tele Precocious German Schoolboys. A schoolboy named Manustedt, 17 years old, has lately committed suisenior scholars a secret association had been formed, with the object of vicious practices. These vonths, indthey were during their carousals. "Pon my word this is unexpected Mannstedt, as the leader of these proceeded to the Thiergarten, where he blew his brains out. His death will On Monday morning he opened ac you everywhere! Sent my card to into the manner of life led by too counts with brokers and began selling | your apartments this evening. By many young schoolboys on the verge tal war footing of the Russian army peasant class and the officers from seamed the puffed, round face with 958 soldiers, 613,400 horses and 4,000 Fortunate Town. Baron Heinrich Liebig, head of the firm of Johann Liebig & Co., who died same amount), his villa, his Frank-

spouse his cause, but John had not EAST SIDE PACKERS SECURE ontwissioned him to quarrel with A SWEEPING INJUNCTION win the strike the other crafts in-Thus reasoned Blake as Motris directly connected with the meat took his arm and led him away from trade would go out on a sympatthetic ing unions in East St. Louis: Cattle strike.

is, proffering a cigarette case, East St. Louis, Ill.: At 10 o'clock green hide workers' No. 147, sheep "You'll be my guest to-night, Blake! Sunday night Judge Holder of the butchers' No. 149, sausage meat trim-Won't listen to a refusal, my dear St. Clair county circuit court issued mers' No. 225, sausage makers' No. fellow! Eve bachelor apartments, from Believille a sweeping injunction 226, pork cellar mens' No. 312, oleo and anything you ask is yours. I directed against the striking butchers workers' No. 338, live stock handlers' want to have a quiet chat with you. in the packing houses at East St. No. 356, elevator men and offers' No. Let's make our excuses and stroll to Louis. It restrains them from in any 271, produce department and house Delmonico's for a life of supper. Then way interfering with the operation of employes No. 381 and the beef lugthe plants or with nonunion men gers, checkers and scalers union. Blake accepted the invitation and hired to take the places of the em- The writ further includes "all other after supper they drove to the Morris playes who walked out. Every mem- persons who sympathize with or act ber of the union connected with the in connection with the said strikers "I'm rather fond of these quarters, packing house trades is brought with who are members of the organizadop't you know," said Morris, as he in the scope of the injunction although tions set forth." showed his guest through a stree but two persons are specifically. The construction placed upon the worthy of a Luculius. "Picked up some named. They are P. Morgan and order Sunday night was that it not of this stuff abroad, and the governor John Smith, union leaders and organic only forbids all unlawful or coercive contributed the rest of it. Rammolun, zers among the butchers.

night by the managers of the three men who have been hired in their moved noiselessly away. Morris open- big East Side packing houses affected places or from persuading men to by the strike. These are the Armour, leave the plants, Swift and Neison Morris companies. The move of the packers is taken George W. Thomason. The sheriff pre-autionary measure Donnelly Talks to Strikers. (autounced that he would go to East President Donnelly addressed the St. Louis Monday morning and serve striers at East St. Louis Sunday the writ on every striker he could find. between John and the young million and counseled them, above all, to He also will swear in as many adaire. The feud had made John rich- keep the peace. Obey the law, he re difforal deputies as he deems necesbutchers' union No. 53, purk burchers' union No. 54, easing workers' No 60, acts by the strikers, but enjoins them The writ was applied for Sunday from gatthering on the streets to stop in whose plants over 4,000 men quit as a certain indication that they inwork last Monday. The injunction tend to resume operations on a large was placed in the hands of Sheriff scale and secured the injunction as a

Not Be Passed for Two Weeks, sion and said he understood from the Transvaal Mourns.

ed forth general expressions of regret, especially because the ex-presi-

Comply with Raisuli's Demand.

Mexican Dies Aged 107.

Working Under Injunction.

Report Ta Tche Kiao Batle On.

Chefoo: Private advices received

ed battle between Kai Chou and Ta

Heavy Wind at Nashville.

tion of the city several homes were Tornado in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb.: A tornado Sunday damaged through falling trees.

Nashville, Ill.: A storm of tornado-early Thursday morning from Niu-chwang indicate that the long expect-

Tche Kiao was then in progress.

are working.

Chester, Ill.: The Menard Manu-

HENRY CASSAWAY DAVIS.

THINK LOOMIS MET SCHNETTLER WILL WITH FOUL PLAS

Wound Has Appearance of Being Made While He Was Alive.

London: Reports to both the press proprietor. "Have the shirts faded association and the Central News assert that a further examination of the body of F. Kent Loomis, which was "What do you think my wife said to found Saturday at Warren Point, some fifteen miles from Plymouth, has given rise to grave suspicions on the part of the local officials that Mr. Loomis of guilty. met with fore play. The wound behind the right our is described as being eys, Simon B. Bass and W. H. Clark. circular, large and clean, and it is Schnettler did not display any emotion thought that it was inflicted before and held his brief conversation with death. It is surmised that Mr. Loomis' | Judge McDonald in clear, even tones.

Joseph G. Stephens, American con- Jefendant's attorneys that he desired sleighs and horses in St. Paul, but no sul at Plymouth, in response to a tolo time to get his affairs in shape jingling accompanies his sleighing gram sent by the Associated Press before beginning his sentence, For the same reason he has little use | Sunday night, asking him if the local for telephones and never uses one reports of foul play had any basis, the passage of sentence for two weeks. when it can be avoided. Mr. Hill or if he had any ground for suspicion Judge McDonald said that if at the

"I regret I can not make any state ments prior to the inquest, which will would be two years in the Penitentiary. be made Monday. The wound on the When Morris' name was mentioned room was equipped with a telephone of a half dollar. The body is fairly Botha, the former commander in chief Blake started and gazed intently at and a fine set of hells to signal his preserved, especially about the top and of the Boer forces, Thursday received the stolid face and heavy figure in the office force. Mr. Hill called before back of the head, considering the time a cable message announcing Mr. Kruger's death. The anouncement call

Storm Strikes Central Illinois. Bloomington, Ill.: A remarkable elect dent died among foreigners. The tric storm passed over Central Illinois | flags on all the government buildings Thursday afternoon. Many head of are at half mast. Mr. Kruger will stock were killed. The storm was most be buried beside former presidents of disastrons near Pekin and points in the Transvaal, unless his will has termediate. A tremendous amount of provided otherwise. Memorial servi water fell, and there is heavy loss to ces will be held July 17 in all the farmers. Oats and hay harvest is now Dutch churches... Gen. Botha has orat its height in many sections, and dered that all the Boers shall wear great damage to both crops resulted. mourning until after the funeral.

To Monopolize Wireless Telegraphy. London: Itis said that the government will bring in a bill making wire | police, has been appointed governor, less telegraphy throughout the United | General satisfaction is expressed over Kingdom a government monoply. The the removau of the late occupantt of post office officials have been experi- the governorship, which was one of menting with a system of their own. Raisuli's stipulations, Man Drowns in Otter Lake, Ill. Niantie, III.; W. D. Hewston of Philadelphia, Pa., foreman in the Urban job puato is dead at the age of 107. He was to travel. The car seats and the hotel live by a slight drawl. All his life he gang, drowneed in Otter Lake, two and in fair health almost to the day of his onehalf miles south of Niantic, Ill., death, and his faculties were unim- they stay at home. But that is no he is at all times prepared to recount to find his relatives.

Tornado Near Delavan, Peorfa, Ill.: Delavan reports a severe tails of the storm are obtainable. Japanese Retake Two Forts. Arthur, who arrived here Wednesday. report that the Japanese have recaptured two positions from which they were driven recently, namely forts

Senator Burton's Appeal Allowed. Abilene, Kas.: Senator Burton Monday morning received a telegram from like velocity pased over this city at his attorneys, saying that Justice 4:30 Monday afternoon and raged Brewer had allowned the appeal of Mr. | for half an hour. No loss of life has Burton's case to the Supreme Court. been reported. In the residence secrecord of the case.

Decide on Chance for Chief Clerk. Washington: The postmaster general has decided upon the appointment of Merritt O. Chancee to be chief clerk | night destroyed seven farmhouses and of the post office department, to suc- barns and outbuildings near Burwell. ceed Blaine W. Taylor, whose resis- No lives were lost. The list of injured nation takes effect on August 20 next its not obtainable.

The injunction specifies the follow fairs and that since the crime his actions have been more or less sus-The coroner is undecided as to Mrs. Starbuck's death and is inclined and call for help, even when she was to doubt foul play. Dr. B. Smith suffering from this mania. She says Mrs. Starbuck's death was not | would be hable to do everything that the result of crime. He was her phy- she did and still be in a state of secian. She was of highly nervous or, acute anamela.

"The fact that she was shricking ganization. He says: "Her death was caused and screaming in the well and that by acute congestion of the lungs, she fought her husband and those following an attack of acute pneu- who came to her assistance is indimonia. I have had in my practice cation that her mind was deranged. numbers of cases of this kind. In The acute congestion of the lungs this particular case Mrs. Starbuck that was the cause of her death was was the mother of a 16-weeks-old brought about by exposure in the wababy. I am told that on Saturday she | for and the strain upon her lunes by worked very hard and was exposed her shricks and screams. Her referto heat from a stove over which she ence in her delirium to monsters and men who had carried her away was was cooking. "My opinion is that she was sud- additional evidence of her mental

DOCTOR SAYS MRS. STARBUCK'S

DEATH WAS NOT MURDER

dealy stricken with this mania and condition. imagined she saw someone coming in "If there had been a robbery or the window, seized her baby and ran an attempt at assault there would have been some evidence of it. There to protect herself and babe from the is no such evidence. She was not monster she spoke of in her delirium. the victim of foul play, but of a sud-She was liable to go to the telephone | den attack of insanity.

KAISER TO REWARD HEROISM! IDEAL STUDY FOR AUTHOR.

MURDERED WOMAN

William Lockridge, another suspect complicity in the number of Mrs.

William Starbuck and her child, near Greensboro, Ind., is under arrest.

Lockridge is held on circumstantial vidence that tends to show that he was more or less intimate with Haley

Gipe, who is also under arrest in con-

· ection with the crime, in other af-

Showed Bravery in Disaster. The German emperor has deter-SERVE TWO YEARS Judge McDonald Says Sentence May St. Louis: The second plea of guilty o the charge of bribery in connection with the Suburban Railway deal occurred Wednesday, when John H. Schnetler appeared in Judge McDonald's division of the Circuit Court and asked permission to withdraw his former dea of not guilty and substitute a plea. He was accompanied by his attornergaged in the delicate task of pick- in the study, with the lapping of the ing these from among the many wom- water all around and under him. It en who did noble service on that oc- is an ideal den for a literary man Judge McDonald granted the permis-

THE ORIGINAL CLEVELAND MAN.

This the court allowed, deterring on Road to White House. Dr. Henry B. Lesher of Salina, Jefferson county, lown, claims to have started Grover Cleveland on his political career. He was in Buffalo when He announced that the sentence Pretoria, Transvaal; Gen. Louis

Mr. Cleveland was nominated for news of another degree, that of docsheriff. Dr. Lesher says: "When it for of laws, which has just been came nearly time for a sheriff to be given Mr. Howells by Western Renominated I said to my neighbor: When the nominations are open I'm loge of Cleveland, O. In conferring going to shout "Cleveland!", Well, the degree President Thwing made pretty soon the chairman announced use of the following words: "Upon that nominations for sheriff were William Dean Howells, son of Ohio, onen and I shouted as I could, associated with the Western Reserve. Grover Cleveland!' It was taken up | editor of lengthy and manifold exall over the house and then someone | perience, critic of vision and sympanominated him. He was elected by a thy, who brings to his realism in the big majority and he kept going on art of the novel a truthfulness and till he lit in the white house. Big Men of Indian Territory. One of the delegates sent by In- the degree of doctor of laws." ian territory to the Democratic national convention was C. A. Skeen, who stands 6 feet 3 inches in his stockings and is a big man even for his Tangler: Kaid Benhimaa, chief of

Made Economy His Hobby. The late grand duke of Mecklenburg Strelitz was totally blind for wouldn't give him the increased asstorm six miles south of that town. facturing Company is now running its Telephone wires in that vicinity are foundry at the Southern Illinois Peni- more than half a century. He ruled sistance in the audit office which he all down. It is said several barns and tentiary under an injunction issued forty-five years. His predecessor was thought (and still thinks) the inwindmills were blown down. No de- Wednesday by Judge Buroughs of a spendthrift, who had left everything crease in the work to be done re-Edwardsville. Two hundred convicts in great confusion. The new duke be- quires Canada's auditor general. J. gan at once to economize in every L. McDougall, has applied for superway, and at the time of his death he annuation. He is 65 years old. He is was a very wealthy man. He urged entitled to a pension of $2,080 in any his subjects to follow his example. case, and he suggests that it ought Economy became his watchword for to be $2,800. He was gold medalist everything; he disapproved of large in mathematics at the University of amilies as being antagonistic to this | Toronto in 1859 and served for severprinciple, and whenever one of his ai years in the house of commons at courtiers had an addition to his family Ottawa before his appointment to the he never failed to direct attention to audit office. this fact.

Whitney Not a Speculator.

Cable for Names of Women Who Where Irving Bacheller Turns Out His Widely Read Books. Irving Bacheller, the novelist, has mined to confer decorations on those what is probably a unique study in who risked their lives in saving bass- which to do his work. Mr. Bacheller engers on the ill-fated steamboat Gen- has built a home at Sound Beach, eral Slocum, recently burned in the Conn., a stone's throw from the wariver at New York. As the former ter. The house stands at the head ruler of many who lost their lives on | of a sloping lawn, facing the broad the vessel, he has instructed Consul reaches of the beautiful sound, where General Buenez to procure for him a the novelist refreshes himself with list of names of those whose rescues his favorite sport, fishing. His den were distinguished by heroism. It is not in the house, but is a separate was he who first cauled for a list of square-built structure on the rocky the dead, which was promptly sent, edge of the water, and when the tide While this list was being prepared, is high it is half hoat, half house, for however, another request was re- the waves come up under it in a sort ceived for the names of the braves? of a funnel built directly beneath three women nurses. This Consul | for the safe housing of a hoat. When General Buenez submitted to Health Dr. Bacheller has been working hard Commissioner Darlington, who is now far into the night he goes to sleep > who is also a fisherman and loves the water.

MORE HONORS FOR HOWELLS. Iowan Says He Started Ex-President Discerning Praise and University Dearee Bestowed Upon Him.

Close upon the honor which Oxford has conferred upon Mr. Howells in making him doctor of letters comes serve University and Adelbert Coldelicacy which constitute it a type of idealism, social philosopher, man of culture, gentle friend, is conferred Southern Statesman a Giant, Champ Clark, permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention. stature. Mr. Skeen is a most vera- is a man of imposing appearance, 6 cious gentleman, it would appear, said | feet 1 inch tall and built on herculean in an interview: "I am sorry that lines. This picturesque Missouriannone of the big men of the territory wit, stump speaker and syndicate was able to attend this convention. writer-dresses like an old-time south-They were all busy and so they said ern planter, including a Prince Albert that the little fellows, who are not coat, with a slonch hat that would so much use at work, must come cover most heads down to the chin. along. Some of the men in the terri- for it is of 7% size. His quaint style Mexico Chy: Rufino Lopez of Ira- tory are so big that they are not able of humor is made all the more effectbeds are all too small for them. So has been an omnivorous reader, and

Because Sir Wilfrid Laurier

Harry Payne Whitney is barely 32 | in Pottstown, Pa., Rev. W. O. Watears of age. According to a former kinson signalized the eighty-third anbusiness associate of his father, the niversary of his birth as well as his late William C. Whitney-a man who country's natal day by delivering a knew him intimately for many years | sermon. The First Baptist church -the son has an abiding aversion to was thronged to hear the venerable speculation and never will be a com- speaker discuss "Religion and Pamanding figure in the pit or on the triotism." Mr. Watkinson retired floor of the exchange, but will follow after half a century in the pulpit. more in the footsteps of the Vander- during which time he had only five bilts in husbanding their investments. | charges.

Sunday morning Efforts are bing made paired. He leaves large properties hardship for a man who lives in In- what he has read, having a most enand a great number of descendants. dian Territory."- Chicago Chronicle. viably retentive memory. Resigns Because of Overwork.

Three Anniversaries in One. At the Fourth of July celebration